

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT SUPPER SERIES

A DIPP FOR MENTAL DYSPEPSIS, AND A CURE FOR HYPOCHONDRIA, HY-POBRIE, OR ANY COMPLAINT OF A HY ORDER.

BY OUR SERIES EDITOR.

ALMANAC AND DIARY.

SHORT METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS FOR THE WEEK.

June.

Monday, 19.—Tobacco Manufacturers in session in Philadelphia. Great want of harmony in the session; the whole thing ended in smoke, by each one trying to puff his own cigars.

Tuesday, 20.—Regatta Day on the Delaware. Race of sailing craft on the river. A Chariot race at Suffolk Park. Great disorder to society by this intermingling of the races.

Wednesday, 21.—Prize fight in Virginia, near Washington. This one by Barney Aaron and Collier being a success. Rosewell's attack on Mr. Grinnell, at Washington, proved a miserable failure.

Thursday, 22.—Meeting of City Councils, Professor Maguire, with several other Professors of the Central High School, receive a three months' notice to quit.

Friday, 23.—A third street "bull" receives a considerable amount of attention from the boys of Third and Walnut streets, laid on by a woman. Such an extra amount of aid caused him to suffer from the heat.

Saturday, 24.—SERIES COLUMN DAY. The Editor despondent in view of the great amount of fussy talent turned adrift from the High School, he fears that it will have a tendency to cheapen that commodity.

cured himself among the fair sex, ice cream and sandwiches, on board of the pilot-boat Henry Cope, where he would occasionally, on passing the six feet yachts, encourage their half-drowned crews by shouting to them in a merry voice.

"GO DOWN, BOYS!" and which would please the boys that all along the route of the race could be seen

THE BOYS GOING DOWN; while ye Admiral was both safe and dry, particularly as regards the dry, and he remained so until the pilot schooner and an accompanying steaming passed the 1st Buoy, when things began to be more lively.

YE TUG AND YE SCHOONER "HENRY COPE" PASSING THE FIRST BUOY—CATCHING IT ON THE FLY.

CORRECT REPRESENTATION OF YE BUOY. The Commodore's yacht Scud and others of the larger craft now weighed anchor, but as we could not learn the exact weight of their anchors, we will have to let a mere notice of that fact suffice.

We also learned from the Admiral that the Scud had her job-stay carried away during the race, but we have not heard that they have caught the chap who carried it away, or what he wanted with it.

Now the Tug, being so pleased with the Admiral, continued in his company and in company of the Henry Cope throughout the whole route, which latter vessel contained the fair sex, the Admiral, and the creature comforts of the day.

Several Buoys were passed by our schooner and Tug, as above reported, before we arrived back to the city, and long before we did return from down the river the race we went to see had been run and was over, and all we know of it is given in this, our last words and conclusion.

YE YACHT "SCUD, JR.," THE WINNING BOAT, COMING IN UNDER THESE REEFED AND REEFERS. ONLY THE REEFERS VISIBLE.

SONG FOR MUSIC.

BY A POPULAR SONG-WRITER.

"There is a Name."

I. There is a name I dare not breathe, Although it once was dear, They deem my linen spots now, And no deception here; And yet, like sunset's rosy flush, My cheek is hid with shame, They ask me—but I will not breathe My Washerwoman's name.

II. Last night, when in the mazy dance, My neat foot trod the floor, They little dreamed my natty neck A paper collar bore. A "Lockwood" clasped my tender throat, And yet who dares to blame? Her bliss not paid—I cannot breathe My Washerwoman's name!

Received Too Late for Classification. We stop the press to announce that the Chesnut Street Bridge is in a convalescent state. After many years of suffering, which it bore with Christian fortitude and firmness, it has fully recovered. We are glad to announce that it is now a worthy companion of its piers.

Mr. VAN CLEVE, one of our City Fathers, had his watch taken out of his pocket—such a thing was not thought possible—and Mr. VAN CLEVE himself made the remark, when he found his watch was gone, that "That thief took his time."
